कर्नाटक धारवाड की धरती पर आयोजित राष्ट्रीय युवा उत्सव 2023 के अंतर्गत आयोजित फूड फेस्टिवल में दिल्ली के गोलगप्पे, झालमुंडी चाट के स्वाद की बात करें तो लोग इसे भी बहुत पसंद कर रहे हैं. हरियाणा की बाजरे की रोटी, सरसो का साग और बाजरे की खिचड़ी भी पूरे फूड फेस्टिवल में अपनी धूम मचा रही है. बिहार के लिट्टी चोखा और सत्तू के अपने स्वाद में भी एक अलग महक देखने को मिल रही है और बिहार से सटे हुए झारखंड के छिलका रोटी, मालपुआ, चंडीगढ़ से आए आलू परांठा और लस्सी, छत्तीसगढ़ से आए दूध फेरा, नमक पारा, शव. करपारा जैसे व्यंजन को सराहा जा रहा है।

वही दूसरी ओर कर्नाटक के नीर खोसा, कश्मीर के राजमा-चावल, तमिलनाडु की कंचीपुरम कोविल इडली का स्वाद लुभा रहा है और मणिपुर के काले चावल की खीर अचरज का विषय बनी हुई है. वही गुजरात के खमण, ढोकला, होंडवा, खाखरा, खारी सिंग और केरल से अप्पम, पुचु के साथ कडला के चटकारे आने वाले सैलानियों का मन लुभा रहे हैं।

Close  the care  gap

 World Cancer Day
4 February

a leading international awareness day

World Cancer Day held every 4 February is the global uniting initiative led by the Union for International Cancer Control (UICC). By raising worldwide awareness, improving education and catalysing personal, collective and government action, we are all working together to reimagine a world where millions of preventable cancer deaths are saved and access to life-saving cancer treatment and care is equitable for all - no matter who you are or where you live. Created in 2000, World Cancer Day has grown into a positive movement for everyone, everywhere to unite under one voice to face one of our greatest challenges in history.

So this year's World Cancer Day's theme, "Close the Care Gap - Everyone deserves access to cancer care", is all about raising awareness of this equity gap that affects almost everyone, in high as well as low- and middle-income countries, and is costing lives.

Our time to act is now.

Spread the word!

Never underestimate the power of cooperation and collective action to save lives.

Who are you and what will you do on 4 Feb?

Speak up, stand up and take action together this #WorldCancerDay #CloseTheCareGap www.worldcancerday.org

How cancer affects our world

Non-Communicable Diseases, including cancer, are among World Health Organization's "Ten threats to global health."

Progress is possible

30-50% of all cancer cases are preventable

There's a lot we can do

Adopting healthier behaviors and knowing the early signs of cancer reduce cancer risk. 25% of cancer cases can be prevented.

What can you do to reduce your cancer risk?

- Choose healthy foods
- Exercise
- Quit smoking
- Get cancer checked
- Be screened for early signs of cancer
- Limit alcohol and avoid tobacco
- Get vaccinated
- Use safe sex & protection

10 million died of cancer in 2020

Good health drives productivity, social stability and economic growth.

What inaction costs us.

The total global economic cost of cancer has been estimated at USD 1.16 trillion

Every year USD 1.16 trillion of economic development is lost due to USD 1.16 trillion in cancer treatment costs.

- Lost productivity
- Healthcare costs
- Lost household income
- Reduced quality of life
- Disability and premature death

Saving lives saves money

Every year USD 1.16 trillion in prevention, screening, and early treatment costs could save a massive USD 900 billion in avoided cancer treatment costs.

Make the world a healthier place for all

More than 90% of cancer deaths occur in the least developed parts of the world.

Why is that?

- Less than 10% of people in low-income countries have access to cancer screening and early diagnosis.
- Less than 10% of people in low-income countries have access to cancer treatment and care.
- Less than 10% of people in low-income countries have access to cancer prevention and control.
- Less than 10% of people in low-income countries have access to cancer research and innovation.

Inequity in our own backyard

Low levels of education and income, and other social and economic factors, often result in cancer risk for people.

Screening and early diagnosis can help prevent cancer.

Let's give everyone a chance with equitable access to cancer care.

Half the world's population lacks access to the full range of essential health services, and many are denied basic cancer care.

Why? Due to differences in income and education levels, geographical location, and discrimination based on ethnicity, race, gender, social status, age, disability and language.

Progress is possible.

Today, there are 8.5 billion people alive, with 5 billion of them in the developing world. By 2050, the world population is expected to reach 9.7 billion. The number of people living in low-income and middle-income countries is growing faster.

National Science Day 2022

The day is celebrated every year on 28th February to commemorate the discovery of the 'Raman Effect'. On this day, Indian Physicist Sir C.V. Raman announced the discovery of the 'Raman Effect' for which he was awarded the Nobel Prize in 1930. In 1986, Government of India designated 28 February as National Science Day.

Raman effect, change in the wavelength of light that occurs when a light beam is deflected by molecules. When a beam of light traverses a dust-free, transparent sample of a chemical compound, a small fraction of the light emerges in directions other than that of the incident (incoming) beam.

REMOVE LAWS THAT HARM, CREATE LAWS THAT EMPOWER ZERO DISCRIMINATION DAY – 1st March

On Zero Discrimination Day, 1 March, we celebrate the right of everyone to live a full and productive life and live it with dignity. Zero Discrimination Day highlights how people can become informed about and promote tolerance, compassion, peace and, above all, a movement for change. Zero Discrimination Day is helping to create a global movement of solidarity to end all forms of discrimination.

On Zero Discrimination Day this year, under the theme "Remove laws that harm, create laws that empower", UNAIDS is highlighting the urgent need to take action against discriminatory laws.

In many countries, laws result in people being treated differently, excluded from essential services or being subject to undue restrictions on how they live their lives, simply because of who they are, what they do or who they love. Such laws are discriminatory—they deny human rights and fundamental freedoms.

States have a moral and legal obligation to remove discriminatory laws and to enact laws that protect people from discrimination. Everyone has a responsibility to hold states accountable, call for change and contribute to efforts to remove discriminatory laws.

On Zero Discrimination Day, 1 March, we celebrate the right of everyone to live a full and productive life—and live it with dignity and free from discrimination.

The United Nations General Assembly proclaimed 21 March the International Day of Forests (IDF) in 2012. The Day celebrates and raises awareness of the importance of all types of forests. On each International Day of Forests, countries are encouraged to undertake local, national and international efforts to organize activities involving forests and trees, such as tree planting campaigns.

Theme for 2022 is "Forests and sustainable production and consumption."

Too precious to lose

When we drink a glass of water, write in a notebook, take medicine for a fever or build a house, we do not always make the connection with forests. And yet, these and many other aspects of our lives are linked to forests in one way or another.

Forest sustainable management and their use of resources are key to combating climate change, and to contributing to the prosperity and well-being of current and future generations. Forests also play a crucial role in poverty alleviation and in the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Yet despite all these priceless ecological, economic, social and health benefits, global deforestation continues at an alarming rate.

Wood helps to provide bacteria-free food and water in many kitchens, build countless furniture and utensils, replace materials as harmful as plastic, create new fibers for our clothes and, through technology, be part of the fields of medicine or the space race.

It is vital to consume and produce wood in a more environmentally friendly way for the planet and its inhabitants. Let's protect this easily renewable resource with a sustainable management of forests.

WORLD WATER DAY 2022

GROUNDWATER - MAKING THE INVISIBLE VISIBLE

World Water Day is held on 22 March every year. World Water Day is an annual United Nations Observance, started in 1993, focusing on the importance of water, coordinated by UN-Water and led by one or more UN-Water Members and Partners with a related mandate.

2022 Groundwater

World Water Day celebrates water and raises awareness of the 2 billion people living without access to safe water. It is about taking action to tackle the global water crisis. A core focus of World Water Day is to support the achievement of Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 6: water and sanitation for all by 2030.

Groundwater needs to be used carefully and sustainably – but we cannot manage what we do not measure. Groundwater must be thoroughly explored, analyzed and monitored.

EPILEPSY AWARENESS DAY 2022

26 MARCH

Epilepsy Awareness Day, or Purple Day celebrated annually on March 26, was created to increase the public's understanding of this brain disorder and to eliminate the fear and stigma surrounding it.

Cassidy Megan from Nova Scotia, Canada, founded Epilepsy Awareness Day with the first event held on March 26, 2008. Motivated by her own diagnosis and struggles of living with epilepsy, she realized the importance of everyone understanding this common neurological disorder. She created an avenue for people to learn, engage, and support the public's education of epilepsy as well as dispel the myths and fears surrounding it.

By the numbers

- 50 million – the number of people in the world who have epilepsy.
- 80% – the percentage of people with epilepsy who reside in low- or middle-income countries.
- 70% – the percentage of people with epilepsy who can be properly treated.
- 3x – the increased risk of premature death in epileptic people.
- $\frac{3}{4}$ – the total number of people with epilepsy living in low-income countries who do not receive proper treatment.
- 25% – the percentage of epilepsy cases that are preventable.

15 April
WORLD ART DAY

Happy World Art Day

Each year, on 15 April, World Art Day, a celebration to promote the development, diffusion and enjoyment of art, was proclaimed at the 40th session of UNESCO's General Conference in 2019.

Art nurtures creativity, innovation and cultural diversity for all peoples across the globe and plays an important role in sharing knowledge and encouraging curiosity and dialogue. These are qualities that art has always had, and will always have if we continue to support environments where artists and artistic freedom are promoted and protected. In this way, furthering the development of art also furthers our means to achieve a free and peaceful world.

Celebrate this year World Art Day-2022 to help reinforce the links between artistic creations and society, encourage greater awareness of the diversity of artistic expressions and highlight the contribution of artists to sustainable development.

Draw or share your arts/ favourite arts in commemoration of World Art Day.

INTERNATIONAL NURSES DAY

NURSES
A VOICE TO LEAD
INVEST IN NURSING AND RESPECT RIGHTS TO SECURE GLOBAL HEALTH

12 May 2022
#IND2022

On International Nurses Day, we express our gratitude to hardworking nursing staff for serving mankind with utmost dedication especially during the ongoing COVID19 pandemic. Their tireless efforts are saving precious lives, strengthening our medical system & ensuring well-being of all.

International Nurses Day (IND 2022) is celebrated around the world every May 12, the anniversary of Florence Nightingale's birth. ICN commemorates this important day each year with the production and distribution of the International Nurses' Day (IND) resources and evidence.

The theme for the 2022 resource is
Nurses: A Voice to Lead - Invest in Nursing and respect rights to secure global health.

Great Manhood Quotes

1. "Being a male is a matter of birth. Being a man is a matter of choice."
— Edwin Louis Cole
2. "Try not to become a man of success, but rather try to become a man of value." Albert Einstein
3. "If Boys don't learn, men won't know." Douglas Wilson
4. "Manhood is the defeat of childhood narcissism." –David Gilmore
5. "All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing." Edmund Burke
6. "Strength, Courage, Mastery, and Honor are the alpha virtues of men all over the world." –Jack Donovan
7. "Manliness means perfect manhood, as womanliness implies perfect womanhood. Manliness is the character of a man as he ought to be, as he was meant to be." –James Freeman Clarke
8. "A man's got to have a code, a creed to live by, no matter his job." – John Wayne
9. "Men and women have strengths that complement each other." Edwin Louis Cole
10. "A man is one whose body has been trained to be the ready servant of his mind; whose passions are trained to be the servants of his will; who enjoys the beautiful, loves truth, hates wrong, loves to do good, and respects others as himself." –John Ruskin
